OAUG News Release

OAUG Offers Release 12 Financials Boot Camp

- Provides lessons on Oracle Release 12 Financials implementation, functionality and integration -

ATLANTA – Sept. 20, 2007 - The Oracle Applications Users Group (OAUG), the world's largest user knowledgebase for Oracle Applications, announced its upcoming OAUG Release 12 Financials Boot Camp, a hands-on, 10-day training program presented by the OAUG and Oracle University that will prepare project teams and consultants to progress in their Oracle Release 12 Financials implementations.

The OAUG Release 12 Financial Boot Camp offers users a thorough introduction to critical navigation and fundamentals, lessons on basic functionality and key setup options for user applications and demonstrations regarding the integration points between applications.

"The OAUG Release 12 Financials Boot Camp provides yet another opportunity for our members to enhance their level of knowledge about the Oracle community through in-depth, targeted training sessions," said Jan Wagner, president of the OAUG.

The intensive boot camp will be held over a two-week period starting on October 29 through November 9 at Oracle University Training Centre in Chicago. To register, download the registration form found at the OAUG Web site at oaug.org, and return the completed registration form by fax or e-mail to Jackie Dale at jdale@oaug.com by September 28.
